SOUTHERN COLLEGE OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

Seventy-Third
Annual Commencement
May 5-7, 1989

(No Dec. graduation & no Whole graduation 88-89)

Where Are You Going?

Some universities and colleges are known as pace-setters—the so-called research institutions, Ivy League schools, big name universities, and the elite liberal arts colleges. These institutions are guided by certain standards and goals, and most measure up impressively.

We must remember that goals and standards are not ends in themselves. The process of seeking them needs to be purposeful. It must insure that the product measures up. The process must continue in the direction of that which is worthwhile and valuable.

As Christians who have now completed a process of education we must continue to be concerned about where we are going. We must continue to look at the standards and goals, to be sure on what we stand and for what we stand. Well-educated Christians have a special, indeed a crucial, contribution to make—to society at large, to our church, and to our homes and families.

I believe that the distinctive characteristic of Southern College can give you energy, direction, and God's power to go and succeed as God counts success. I pray that this experience will be yours.

THE MACE

The mace is a traditional symbol used to communicate and designate authority. With echoes of historical use as a weapon of offense against armored knights, the academic mace represents education's ability to break through ignorance and remove barriers of prejudice.

The Southern College mace was crafted in 1986 by John Durichek, an alumnus who is now associate professor of industrial education at his alma mater.

The mace was designed to represent Southern's heritage and its raison d'être. The base is of pine from Jones Hall, built in 1917 and razed in 1985. The main staff is of walnut. The seven rings hold a wealth of meaning, gathered not only from Scripture to represent completeness but also from the seven academic divisions of the college. The four-sided segment is seen as Southern's underlying educational philosophy—balanced mental, spiritual, physical, and social development for each student.

Bearing the mace and leading the procession is the grand marshal, Wayne Vandever, professor of business. His regalia is of green trimmed in white, the college colors.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION RECEPTION

The graduates and their families are invited to a reception in the lobby of Wright Hall immediately following the Commencement service.

HYMN OF WORSHIP

Baccalaureate Service

Rejoice, Ye Pure in Heart

Rejoice, ye pure in heart,
Rejoice, give thanks and sing;
Your festal banner wave on high,
The Cross of Christ your King.

CHORUS:

Rejoice, Rejoice, Rejoice, give thanks and sing.

With voice as full and strong
As oceans' surging praise,
Send forth the sturdy hymns of old,
The psalms of ancient days. CHORUS

With all the angel choirs,
With all the saints on earth,
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
True rapture, noblest mirth. CHORUS

Yes, on through life's long path,
Still chanting as ye go;
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe. CHORUS

Praise Him who reigns on high,
The Lord whom we adore
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God forevermore. CHORUS

DEDICATION SONG

Pray for Me

Here is where the road divides,
Here is where we realize
The sculpting of the Father's great design.

Through time you've been a friend to me
But time is now the enemy,
I wish we didn't have to say goodbye.

But I know, the road He chose for me
Is not the road He chose for you.
So as we chase the dreams we're after,

CHORUS:

Pray for me, and I'll pray for you
Pray that we will keep the common ground
Won't you pray for me and I'll pray for you
And one day love will bring us back around—again.

Painted on a tapestry,
We see the way it has to be
Weaving through the laughter and the tears.

But love will be the tie that binds us
To the time we leave behind us
Memories will be our souvenirs.

And I know, that through it all the
Hardest part of love is letting go,
But there's a greater love that holds us.

Repeat CHORUS
